MISSION STATEMENT

MISSION AND GOALS:

It is the responsibility of the Animas Schools to provide each student with opportunity to develop as an individual; contributing member of the community. Animas Schools hope to promote attitudes, habits of thought and actions that will result in responsible citizenship, vocational effectiveness, maximum personal development and fulfillment.

Students attending the Animas Schools from different cultural and social groups have a commitment to assist each other from each of these groups to develop abilities effectively, so that they can fulfill their own culture, and in the general. The Animas Public Schools will strive for the student develop a proud and positive image. To have faith and confidence in themselves, individuals must understand and respect family, people, community and their heritage. An individual with such faith can confidently take on the task of responsible citizenship in the community, state, and the world.

SMUGGLER'S TRAIL

Smugglers once crossed this area with mule trains of contraband from Mexico, to be traded for merchandise in Arizona. In the summer of 1881, a group of Mexican smugglers were killed in Skeleton Canyon by members of the Clanton gang, including Old Man Clanton, Ike and Billy Clanton, and Curly Bill.
